Discount of Stoughton Health Services (effective January 1, 2014)

All employees are eligible for a discount on select services received at Stoughton Health. This is available to staff as an incentive to use services offered by Stoughton Health. You and your insurance plan eligible immediate family members may receive a discount for select urgent care, emergency services, and rehab services received at Stoughton Health up to and no greater than the Stoughton Health employee traditional HMO health insurance benefit copayment amounts. The urgent care, emergency room, and rehab copayments* will be waived for employees and their dependents if Stoughton Health is utilized, regardless if you are on Stoughton Health's insurance. If other facilities are utilized, you are responsible for any charges not covered by insurance.

You should inform the Patient Financial Services staff that you are an employee at the time of service so you will be provided with this benefit. Note: This discount does not apply to co-insurance, deductibles, and Radiology services.

Note: Patient is responsible to check with their insurance to determine if a copayment, co-insurance or deductible applies to each service. Be aware that copayment, co-insurance, and deductible are three different and distinct deductions from your insurance payment to the provider. The patient is responsible for these payment deductions.

What is a copayment, co-insurance, or deductible?

* Copayments are a specified dollar amount that a member or family is required to pay each time covered services are provided.

* Coinurance is a specified percentage that you must pay when covered services are provided.

* Deductible is a specified dollar amount that a member or family is required to pay each contract year before insurance will pay covered services.
